WILLIE NELSON

Willie sings gay cowboy song

COUNTRY music outlaw Willie Nelson sang "Mamas Don't Let Your Babies Grow Up to Be Cowboys" and "My Heroes Have Always Been Cowboys" more than 25 years ago. He released a very different sort of cowboy anthem this Valentine's Day. "Cowboys Are Frequently, Secretly (Fond of Each Other)" may be the first gay cowboy song by a major recording artist. But it was written long before this year's Oscar-nominated "Brokeback Mountain" made gay cowboys a hot topic.

Misfit toys Toy Fair '06 wasn't all about the big names

SO YOU missed this year's American International Toy Fair. That's OK. You weren't invited. More than 20,000 toy designers, distributors and merchants converged on the Javits Center and other locations throughout New York this week. Toy Fair, which closed yesterday, is for pros only — none of the baubles on display are for sale to the public yet. And it wasn't all Hasbro and Mattel, either. Here are four of the best adult offerings you should keep an eye out for.

CardBoy Sneakers

By Mark James

Remember the orange box your Nikes came in? Mark James knows why you saved it. James turned the blind-box toy craze on its ear with his first CardBoy series — cardboard boxes that, when opened, transform into a variety of characters. His new series pays homage to the discarded Vans, Converse and Adidas cartons of your youth.

Neth Creatures

Pretentious, monosyllabic pseudonyms aren't limited to pop stars and Star Trek characters. But cut J, the father of Neth Creatures, some slack. His slick figurines with their interchangeable parts are like Mr. Potato Head for the gallery set. "I wanted to create something that could sit comfortably next to a vase or a piece of art in someone's home," he says. We think he succeeded.

Needies

By Codependent Design

Do you miss your bipolar ex-girlfriend? If so, try Needies. These minimalist stuffed lumps talk and sing when you squeeze them. If one Needle is close by while you hug another, it will chime in and beg for equal attention. But, unlike your ex, Needies won't call you at 2 a.m. begging for you to come over and hold her one last time. Thank God.

Kuma Central

By Maria Sarmiento

There's more to Miami than getting syphilis and a sunburn on spring break. The city's design district is home to a booming art scene that encompasses every imaginable medium — including toy making. Kuma Central's plush characters make other teddy bears look like abominations from a world better left in the past. Imagine the look on your sister-in-law's face when you give your niece or nephew a stuffed, cuddly ninja.
